

I do not want cellular phones to be used aboard public aircraft due to the nuisance of having the person sitting next to you talking on the phone. Airplanes are too close of quarters to be forced to listen to someone's phone conversation.